

State Democratic Convention. COLUMBIA, August 6.

In compliance with the call of General Wade Hampton, the Chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee, a Convention of the Democratic Party of this State met in Columbia on Thursday night, at 8 o'clock, P. M.

On motion of General Hampton, Ex-Governor Milledge L. Bonham, of Edgefield, was called to the Chair, and Mr. F. G. DeFount, requested to read the Secretary's Report.

On assuming the Chair, Governor Bonham was greeted with applause and said:

Gentlemen:—I thank you from the bottom of my heart for the compliment you have paid me by placing me in the position of temporary Chairman. It is not my intention to make a speech, but simply to announce in accepting the position, what I trust every one will realize—that we are in the midst of the greatest political revolution in the history of this country. Although the call for this Convention has been short, I congratulate you upon the fact that the attendance is so large, particularly as our deliberations are to be attended with the most important results.

It is essential that we should act with calmness, consideration and firmness, in order to conduct this summer's campaign to a successful issue, and if we do our part as well as I am confident the Democracy of the North will do, no one can doubt the election of Seymour at Blair.

Let us do our part faithfully. It is true that the future is uncertain, and that we do not now know whether our votes will be counted, but from the information I have received from the North I believe that Seymour and Blair will be the next President and Vice-President of the United States. To this end let us contribute our part, and when we have done our duty we will have no cause of regret.

[Applause.]

The list of Delegates from each District carried out and enrolled. Messrs. L. L. Bonham, J. H. Brooks, J. A. Davis, A. J. Norris, R. W. Perry, M. C. Butler were elected as Delegates from Edgefield District.

A committee was appointed to nominate permanent officers for the Convention. Said committee submitted the following nominations, which were adopted:

Hon. Armistead Burt, President.
A. J. Norris, W. W. Hartley, J. A. Wagner, and James Conner, Vice Presidents.
J. S. Gibbs, J. O. Davis, J. A. Loyd and W. J. McKelrick, Secretaries.

On the 7th the following Electors were chosen:

For the State at Large—J. P. Thomas and J. D. Kennedy.
For the First Congressional District—R. F. Graham.
Second Congressional District—B. H. Rutledge.
Third Congressional District—A. C. Haswell.
Fourth Congressional District—E. C. McClure.

The proceedings were marked by the prevalence of the utmost harmony.

The Convention adopted the following resolutions:

Whereas, the Democracy of South Carolina have assembled in Convention to nominate electors for the purpose of casting the vote of the State for President and Vice-President of the United States, and for other purposes, therefore let it be

Resolved, That we adopt the declaration of principles recently promulgated by the National Democratic Party in Convention assembled, and we do further cordially endorse and ratify the nomination of Horatio Seymour and Francis Pickens Blair for President and Vice-President of the United States.

Resolved, That the course pursued by the delegates from the Southern States in the late Democratic Convention held in the city of New York on the fourth day of July last, is hereby approved by this Convention, and more especially their conduct in yielding to the judgment and policy of the delegates from the other States in the selection of President and Vice-President and the adoption of a platform of principles.

Resolved, That while we enter our protest against the Radical Reconstruction Acts and the evils they are bringing upon the South, we will with confidence upon constitutional agencies and peaceful influence seek to secure the relief we seek and the reform we need.

Resolved, That we invite all voters of the State to unite with the great Democratic party of the country in a grand effort now being made, to save the free institutions of the country, to secure the genuine restoration of the Union, and to put the Republic once more upon a career of honor, peace and prosperity.

Resolved, That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson, in exercising the power of his high office in raising the question of the Southern States in the Convention of President and Vice-President, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people; and in behalf of the Democratic party of South Carolina, we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard.

Resolved, That our acknowledgments are due, and are hereby tendered, to all those generous spirits of the North, soldiers and sailors—who, amid the storm of Radical passion and prejudices, have raised their voices in behalf of our insulted and outraged section.

Resolved, That the State Central Executive Committee be authorized to fill all such vacancies, to secure the genuine restoration of the Union, and to put the Republic once more upon a career of honor, peace and prosperity.
